

Euroguidance Study Visit

“Career Counselling in Higher Education: Developing Students’ Career Management Skills”

13 – 15 June 2018, Dublin / Maynooth, Ireland

Context

In order to share information and good practices in higher education guidance, Euroguidance Croatia is organising a study visit in cooperation with partners in Ireland on the topic of Career Counselling in Higher Education: Developing Students’ Career Management Skills. Participants for the study visit will be selected through an open call which will be launched in mid-April 2018 and aimed at staff employed in career development centres of different Croatian higher education institutions.

The main objectives of this study visit are to:

- Provide an overview of educational guidance in Ireland
- Present guidance services, tools and resources for students in Irish higher education institutions
- Present opportunities for cooperation between the academic and business sector, and other relevant stakeholders
- Provide a networking opportunity between guidance practitioners from Ireland and Croatia

Partners in Ireland: National Centre for Guidance in Education / Euroguidance Ireland, University College Dublin Career Development Centre, Maynooth University Career Development Centre, Gradireland

Study visit participants: Mia Trcol, Agency for Mobility and EU Programmes / Euroguidance Croatia
5 – 7 Careers advisers from career development centres - higher education institutions in Croatia (participants to be selected in a public call, launch in April 2018)
